A Devotion For The 75th Anniversary

By Crystal Jones

Faithful Through the Generations

"Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations."

—Psalm 90:1 (NIV)

Seventy-five years. That's more than a number—it's a testimony. A testimony of God's faithfulness, His unchanging Word, and His enduring love poured out on a people who dared to believe, to build, and to belong.

This church was birthed through prayer, watered by tears, and sustained by the unwavering hand of God. Through seasons of joy and sorrow, growth and pruning, God has remained the center, the anchor, and the reason we're still standing.

Each pew tells a story. Every chair holds a memory. These walls echo with worship. Generations have gathered here—some for the first time, others returning year after year—all finding hope, healing, and purpose within these sacred walls.

Let us not simply look back today—we look around and we look ahead. We honor the legacy, but we embrace the calling that still lies before us. The same God who called our founders is calling us still—to be a light, a refuge, a place where the broken are welcomed and the lost are found.

As we celebrate 75 years, let our hearts be stirred with gratitude and our spirits be renewed with vision. The story isn't finished. The flame still burns. And by God's grace, the next 75 will be just as rich with miracles, testimonies, and transformed lives.

Father, we thank You for 75 years of faithfulness. Thank You for every soul who has been saved, every life that has been changed, and every heart that has been touched through this ministry. Help us to continue the work with passion and purpose, keeping You at the center of it all. May future generations find You here, just as we have. In Jesus' name, amen.
